"Statement of Intent"

This is a Statement of Intent signed between University of Calcutta (with focus on Department of South & South East Asian Studies) and California State University, Sacramento (with focus on Department of History & Asian Studies) that we are agreeable to consider the development of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for 2020, or the near future. The prime focus of an MOU will be on collaboration between Asian Studies and Department of History programmes of California State University, Sacramento and Department of South and South East Asian Studies of University of Calcutta.

This Statement of Intent can include a plan to facilitate faculty-led student trips with students from each school studying their own at the host universities. It might also pursue exchanges such as Fulbright etc as designed and approved by both Universities.

This is a provisional Statement of Intent. A full MOU will be subject to approval from the President of Sacramento State University and Vice Chancellor, University of Calcutta.
